Library News

Newbery Club is beginning this Friday, September 20, for any interested 5th and 6th graders. This is a voluntary book club aimed at evaluating the best literature of the year up against the merits of the Newbery award. More information can be found on Mrs. Leu's Webpage under the Newbery Club tab. If you're interested feel free to show up at lunch on the 20th, with your lunch, and with or without your signed registration slip.

Book Battles Our first Friday meeting will be in October. Registration papers will be available in the library beginning this week. They can also be printed at Mrs. Leu's Webpage under the Book Battles tab. You can also go there to volunteer, and check and print the book lists.

If your child is interested in accessing audio and eBooks they can use the Sora App. Their login is: Username: full district email address. Password: PIN number they use for all their school passwords.
